Excerpt from Educational Woodworking for Home and School It is almost impossible to conceive of man without tools, yet in the beginning of human existence he had no tools. He was naked and without food and fire, living in caves and hollow trees, searching for fallen nuts under the trees and for fish and game in the streams and moun tains. He was ever hiding from stronger animals and always seeking an opportunity to attack weaker ones. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
