Excerpt from Every Man His Own Civil Engineer and Surveyor: A Manual in Two Parts A carpenter's square hung on edge and the vertical blade plumb will bring the other level. Other appliances might be suggested, but for this work we have adopted the common spirit level; such as are used by masons and carpenters. It is both simple and cheap. And will answer well the purpose. The most convenient way of using it will be on a tripod. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
